Date: 17/08/2024

Considering the recent incidents happening around educational institutes regarding attacks on female students and considering the safety and security of female students in our campus, the officers in their meeting held on 16.08.24 have resolved to discontinue hostel services due to the lack of a regular warden and hostel staff with effect from 01.09.2024. All the students living in the hostel are requested to make arrangements to leave the campus within 31st August positively.

It is further notified that Honorable Vice-chancellor has been pleased to waive the hostel fees as well as the security deposit for the last two months for all the students presently residing at the hostel.

Notified further that hostel services would be resumed once again subject to the approval of the Higher Education Department, Govt. of West Bengal and after the availability of proper hostel staff.
