Notice for Semester I students for Submission of Migration Certificate

Despite prior notification, it has come to our attention that a significant number of students have not submitted their original migration certificates by the specified deadline.

It is notified for the information of all concerned students of Semester I that they must submit their Original Migration Certificate at the office of the Registrar/ Controller of Examinations of the University latest by 5pm on 20.01.2025, failing which their registration process will be suspended.

No further extension of time will be allowed.
